I'm starting this Thanksgiving month with one more Old Testament reading – Ezra – and then moving back into some New Testament readings to finish up. It's been so long since I've read some of these Old Testament records that I'm truly entertained as I reread stuff I've forgotten about. The reacquaintance is Good!

And while it's not been nearly as long since I've been in the other books I want to revisit from our beloved James, Peter and John, I am looking forward to being challenged in my faith walk again by what these brothers have to say.

Again, thanks again for joining me in my devotional reading journey . . . as we ask one more time what the Holy Spirit has to say to us as we come closer to polishing off our year . . .

Shalom,

D. P.
