Well, it's happy September time, which signals our return to a more scheduled life. This month we'll finish some more of Paul's little letters, pick up the book to the Hebrews – which no one really knows for sure who wrote it but it sounds like it was most likely Apollos – pick up the Apostle John small but pointed little letters, and then finish off the month with the little book of Ruth, from the Old Testament. So, I have some eclectic but interesting readings this month, and I hope you find it helpful in your journey with Jesus.

Thanks again for joining me in my scriptural exploration. Take some notes for yourself as you explore, and maybe even have some coffee with someone to kick this stuff around. Blessings to you in your devotional journey!

Shalom,

D. P.
